CytaGlobal participates in ARABCOM 2007

CytaGlobal's 7th participation at ARABCOM is within its strategy to develop and maintain itself as an important telecommunications hub in the Eastern Mediterranean and the Middle East region.

CytaGlobal and more generally CYTA, the Cyprus Telecommunications Authority, has, always been characterised by its ability to develop and maintain a state-of-the-art infrastructure. This along with our highly skilled personnel and the fact that we offer the cheapest telecommunications in Europe constitute a sound base that allows us to play a key role in global telecommunications.

The strength of our network and the superb regional and global connectivity on offer, gives CytaGlobal the capability of connecting the East with the West, making Cyprus, an international electronic communications centre of excellence.
